

Forbidden Love

It was a big storm in year 1888. The wreckers John and Smith saw a big ship, so they attracted it with a light to the cliffs. The captain thought, they were save, so he followed it. Then the ship crashed into the cliffs and they started their terrible work. The wreckers took all the things and killed almost all of the people, only the princess and the queen survived. But then something happened, something without a happy end. Smith saw the princess again and fell in love with her. But they were only able to meet, if they didn`t tell anybody anything about that. First it was okay for them, but then they wanted to marry and that was a big problem. Why ? Because Diana`s mother hated wreckers, because they killed her husband. One day Diana wasn`t able to say nothing about their secret. Her mother was very angry, so angry, that she sent her daughter away. Smith and Diana were so sad, that they jumped from the cliffs into the sea. No one saw them again, but I hope they will be together for the eternity !!!
